

Demographics & Information

Economic Development and Planning can provide demographic and other information on request if such information is available to the bureau. For basic data on communities, we recommend a visit to the Capital District Regional Planning Commission website. The US Census Bureau website provides more data but is not as user friendly.