

Transit Assistance

Economic Development and Planning processes funding from New York State and Rensselaer County to the two providers of transit in Rensselaer County.

Yankee Trails, Inc. runs a three times weekday run between Hoosick Falls and Albany and Bennington, VT, Hoosick Falls and Albany. The service is a flag-down service on NY 7 east of Walmart and on NY 22, with stops at Walmart, downtown Troy, outside the Greyhound Station in Albany and the Empire State Plaza.

Capital District Transportation Authority (CDTA) provides daily route and paratransit service in the cities of Rensselaer and Troy and towns of Brunswick, East Greenbush, North Greenbush, Schaghticoke (Pleasantdale area) and Schodack and the village of Nassau. In addition, CDTA also runs the Amtrak station in Rensselaer.