Dear Bob:

We became involved with TRIP & RCHR many years ago because of then-executive director Patrick Madden's passion for the organizations' mission of connecting people with resources and knowledge to live in desirable homes and create vibrant communities. We are thrilled that TRIP will honor Mayor Patrick Madden with the 2016 Community Citizenship Award at TRIP & RCHR's Annual Homecoming Dinner on Monday, October 24, 2016 at Franklin Terrace. The event is sure to be a wonderful evening!

Patrick Madden has long demonstrated a commitment to improving the City of Troy's neighborhoods and Rensselaer County. As the Executive Director of TRIP from 1985 to 2015, he helped grow the organization from a small but powerful grass roots movement to an innovative leader in the affordable housing industry in Troy and Rensselaer County. His dedication to quality of life issues, his leadership skills and his commitment to our area have made a significant impact on people's lives.

We invite you to join us and be a part of this event that will bring together friends from the past, present and future. By making a commitment to the Annual Homecoming Dinner, you will become a part of all media, advertising and promotion of this event. Please see the attached commitment form with sponsor benefits and instructions. We hope that you will say yes to this wonderful tradition by joining the Annual Homecoming Honorary Committee and committing to sponsorship.

On behalf of the Board of Directors of TRIP & RCHR, and the many residents of Troy and Rensselaer County who benefit from the organizations' fine programs and services, we thank you for your support. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Cathy at the TRIP & RCHR offices at (518) 272-8289.

We look forward to celebrating with you!

Sincerely,

Kevin and Pat O'Bryan
