

Technology Forum: Accessing SBIR/STTR & Other Technology Programs

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- University Faculty, Students and Staff
- Small Business Owners
- Those with an interest in Technology Commercialization

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Strategies for improving proposal funding success rates
- Key components of winning SBIR/STTR proposals
- Common barriers to winning SBIR/STTR competitive grants
- Approaches to overcome SBIR/STTR barriers to success

WHAT YOU WILL NOT LEARN

- SBIR/STTR Program Basics
- Information about the SBIR/STTR Programs that can be found on a Google search

PRESENTER

- Amala Consulting
The Amala Consulting team has experience in grant writing, report and technical writing, budget development and a wide breadth of other services. From small foundation grants to major capacity building and research grants, Amala has helped our clients command the funding needed to get the job done. Our team has proven success with federal, state and foundation grants, such as NSF SBIR, NIH SBIR, DOD SBIR and NYSERDA.

Event Sponsors:

Amala Consulting

EVENT DETAILS

Tuesday, April 11, 2017

8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Light Refreshments will be served.

LOCATION

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

J Building (Adjacent to Heffner Alumni House), 3rd Floor

1223 Peoples Avenue

Troy, NY 12180

FEE TO ATTEND

No Charge

Register Now!

Kate Baker

Small Business Development Center, University at Albany

kbaker@albany.edu

518-380-5077