I. Summary

The Rensselaer County Capital Resource Corporation (RCCRC) is a nonprofit corporation created in 2018 under Section 1411 of the NYS Not-For-Profit Corporation Law. It was created to assist in relieving and reducing unemployment and expanding economic development by creating new job opportunities, retaining and improving existing jobs, instructing and training new and existing employees, and promoting scientific research and new industrial development.

The RCCRC Board, By Laws, Code of Ethics and operating policies mirror those of the Rensselaer County IDA. Furthermore, it is the intent of the RCCRC to work hand-in-hand with the IDA to achieve the above mentioned goals for the betterment of the public.

It is anticipated that the Capital Resource Corporation will remain dormant until and unless another economic development opportunity arises.

III. Authority Measurement Report in Accordance with Section 2824 – a of the PAL

The RCCRC was created to assist Non-Profit Organizations with a focus on economic development within the County.

IV. Management Report on Internal Controls

By working in close coordination with the Rensselaer County IDA and their outside professional consultants, the RCCRC operated without any permanent staff and minimal operating expenses.
